BOOKS! BOOKS! BOOKS!

The Vancouver Symphony Society wants your old books! The Society is holding a Carnival at the Seaforth Armory this fall, of course, to make money.

One of the special features of the Carnival will be a book-stall. For this, we must have BOOKS! We are, therefore, asking all members and friends to aid us by contributing volumes from their own libraries.

We welcome all sorts of books: fiction, non-fiction, travel, science, biographies, children's favorites, detective stories; also, foreign-language books, text-books, cook-books, pocket-books - anything and everything.

If you can bear to part with some rare, cherished volume, so much the better for the Symphony Fund. We shall raffle whatever treasures we receive, whether they be books, historical documents, early maps - even pictures - for a handsome extra fund. What we want most, however, are books, lots and lots of them, any kind, in any condition.

Pile them up on the floor and ring up two members of our Committee: Mrs. Glen C. Hyatt (QH 7645) or Mrs. Norman McK. Lang (KE 5840), and they will be called for instantly. Or, if you like, take them to the Coca Cola Plant, opposite the Armory. Drive up to the big open garage and they will be unloaded for you and kept for us, carefully, thanks to the generous co-operation of the General Manager, Mr. Havens.

Or, if you are downtown, we have another fine receiving centre - the Cigarette Shop, in the Marine Building, thanks to the kindness of Mr. Tucker Rowley.

Do flood us with books - keep the music pouring forth from our wonderful orchestra by pouring thousands of volumes on our grateful heads, this summer.

Mrs. Ernest A. Woodward, Chairman
